Dear Claudia,
well, we've come across the years together, haven't we. Remember why we became friends? Because we both liked M.K.! Those were the days, huh! Remember how we fought over K.J. & E. 20. & J.P. & countless others. But, those days are gone forever. well, those days are gone and we've grown up as we leave Lincoln and become mature young women & I'm sure probably both will be in a nervous world. I wonder if we'll ever see each other again. Thru this summer I'll write you probably from L.A.C. long to be with you, so, write Lots of good job & play as luck me Jane all the best and I'll get a good job & play as luck thing. Well, thanks for this summer. Lots of love & Luck
Please Save!

WASHINGTON 6, D.C.

February 19, 1954

Hi Claudia,
Dear Mr. Pritchard:

I am very pleased to extend, through you, my sincerest congratulations to the students of your school for the beautiful illustrations they have made of Peruvian motifs which will adorn the forthcoming publication of your school.

My consul in Seattle, Señor Eduardo Espantoso, has sent to this Embassy most interesting information pertaining to your publication, and I would like you to know how much we appreciate the activities of your school in matters concerning Peru.

There is no doubt that one of the most effective ways to stress good relations among the countries of this continent is through a better understanding among our peoples. You should be, therefore, commended for your very valuable contribution to good Pan American relations.

I am,

Yours very sincerely,

FERNANDO BERCKEMEYER,
Ambassador.

P.S. I hope we can get together this summer and that if we go out with anyone of the male sex that are friends, we'll have better luck than we had with the "sick boy" and the "Chicago kid." Boy they were the most to say the least! Remember the time we went to Georgetown and ran out of gas and how I got so sick that day from those huge "hungermisters?" Also the time we got your mother's car

We have really gone through a lot together - even a taxi ride (we had to take) from Bill Calechurcheo's to your house! Boy did we get a "brain washing" from our parents! Well kid, I hope we get together this summer with each other.

Starting off with a bang, the Supersonic Seniors got their pins to wear as a pin of authority. As the Seniors ambled on through their last year, they encountered a Senior Week, full of guided missiles, spaceships and spacemen and women; the theme of Senior Week was "Out of This World." The week was filled with such things as honoring the teachers with a dessert, Seniority Day, Senior Dress-up day, the Senior Banquet, a special assembly, and The Senior Play. Every Senior who participated in the Senior Week will always remember the wonderful time he had.

Among other things planned for the year were sending favors to the Faculty for special Holidays, a Senior Cruise, The Senior Prom, and last but not least that moment which every studnet waits for, Commencement.

CLASS of 1955

The Class of '55 co-sponsored the Football Jamboree Dance with the Pep Club. The after-school dance, held in the Girls' Gym, gaily decorated with colored streamers representing every school, was well attended. During the year we held popcorn ball, pickle, and candy sales. The Junior-sponsored "Blackboard Blues" dance, held at the Greenlake Fieldhouse and attended by students from all city High Schools, was tremendously successful. The theme "Chinatown" for Junior Day was incorporated into all activities. A Chinese decor was carried out in the decorations for the Breakfast and each Junior received a souvenir to commemorate this big class event. Many students enjoyed the annual Jr. Day dance, held at the Greenlake Fieldhouse, which was cleverly decorated in Chinese style.

Other activities were teachers' favors, for both Jr. Day and Thanksgiving; a poster contest publicizing Jr. Day; and a Suggestion Box in which all students could express their wishes in regards to class activities. Juniors also sponsored the "Good Neighbor Fund" and the "Red Cross" drives. Following an established tradition, Junior officers and committee members, dressed as "Spacemen," served at the Senior Banquet.

ART COMMITTEE

Art Committee is designed for girls who like to draw and have creative minds in art work. The committee has two main duties each month: painting the Girls' Club mirror to suit the season, a special event, or a particular holiday, and sending favors to each high school on holidays and special events. Other activities, which have taken place this year have been making Christmas favors for the teachers and supporting all Girls' Club drives.

EXTENSIONS COMMITTEE

The Extension Committee under the leadership of Patti Pope, first semester, and Judy Dobson, second semester, had a very successful year. The purpose of this committee is to handle all inter-school communication and to keep the memories of the year in a scrapbook. Programs, pictures, favors and newspaper articles were added to show an accurate account of this very active year. The committee illustrated the book and did lettering following the theme of this years Girls'

DESK GIRL

Seeing to those girls who wish to sign-in to the Girls' Club during the day, was the main job of the Desk Girl Committee. The Committee saw that there was a desk girl in the Girls' Club every period of the day. They also acted as hostesses to visitors of the Girls' Club. Mary Hedges was the Chairman of the Desk Girl Committee. They are also messengers for Miss Hensel, Girls' Club Advisor.

CLERICAL COMMITTEE

Chairman Elaine Kanis and her committee have worked very hard during the past year printing and editing, in conjunction with the Lincolnette committee, the Girls' Club paper "The Lincolnette." Besides printing the Lincolnettes, which came out every month, they print invitations, programs, and many different kinds of announcements for the Girls' Club and its committees.

FINE ARTS

The Fine Arts Committee did very well the first semester under the chairmanship of Mary Quillian with Miss Kinnear as sponsor. The first project was a bulletin board and calendar to tell the students about coming events pertaining to Fine Arts. At Christmas, Miss Hensel gave a demonstration in the Art Library on Christmas arrangements. Second semester under the chairmanship of Sandra Ocamb, there was a Lincolnette page, a tea, and other activities.

SOCIAL SERVICE

With Mary Jane DeJarnett as Chairman of the Social Service Committee, it functioned very smoothly. A few of the jobs performed by this committee were the making of favors for different hospitals and homes around the city, and it also sponsored the annual Christmas Stocking Drive, which was in conjunction with the Junior Red Cross.

COZY

During the fall semester, Barbara Gray was the chairman of the Cozy Committee. In the spring, Ann Brundage took over the job. Their duty is to put on Cozys, which are Girls' Club get-togethers, having a speaker talk on something of interest to the girls. Mrs. Lee was their advisor.

BULLETIN BOARDS

The Bulletin Boards Committee, under the co-chairmanship of Jodene Neilson and Laurie Henson with Mr. Holm as advisor, had the responsibility of advertising the coming events and activities of the Girls' Club. This job was accomplished by putting the information on the Girls' Club bulletin boards. The second semester, Pam DeWitt replaced Jodene. The committee advertised such activities as Homecoming, the drives for Firlands, Honesty Week, and the P.T.A. dances.

FRIENDSHIP

Always on hand to promote friendship among the girls was the Friendship Committee, headed by Carolyn Kendall. Before September was over, every girl new to Lincoln was contacted by a "big sister" who told her of the many activities in school, the social customs, and the main events of the coming months. Ten friendship tables were sponsored during the year which gave an opportunity for girls of different groups to get acquainted.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Publicity Committee, under the chairmanship of Toni Meicho, was quite active this year. One of their jobs was seeing that every week a bulletin board was put up in the Girls' Club to honor the Girl that had done the most outstanding work on her committee. She was then chosen as "Girl of the Week," and her picture was posted on the bulletin board. It was also their job to see that all Girls' Club news was published in the Totem.

DRIVES COMMITTEE

The chairman of the Drives Committee during the fall and spring semesters was Liz Hecht and Miss Vollmer as advisor. All meetings were held on Thursday mornings in room 312. The first drive featured was the Firland Drive. All kinds of handcrafts were collected in the roll rooms. This drive ran for one week and was a great success. Then in the spring semester when the new sign-ups were over the committee started a thorough clean-up around the school.

TRADITIONS

Making a scrapbook of the history of Lincoln High School was the main job of the Traditions Committee, which was started last spring and continued this year until the second semester under the direction of Beverly Sutherland and Faculty advisor Miss McConihe. Much useful information was collected about the history of Lincoln High School and its notable alumni. Since there were very few ways to find out about these things the committee was discontinued.

STANDARDS

The Standards Committee had a very active year with Jennie Claire Mund as chairman. The projects concerned improving the standards of the girls rather than promoting standard dress. In the fall the first project was the Creed Drive. The theme was "Be Smart and Learn Your Creed." This was soon followed by the essay contest, "What My Creed Means to Me." Then during test week they sponsored an Honesty Drive. "Konny" an imaginary character represented one's conscience.

SUNSHINE COMMITTEE

The Sunshine Committee, headed by Shirley Doak the first semester and Virginia Munro the second, sent cards of cheer to girls who were ill, sympathy cards to those who were absent from school due to death in the family, and sponsored various types of birthday recognition throughout the year. Along with the Friendship Committee an "Unbirthday Party" was held in December, inviting all of those whose birthday was not on that day.

POSTER COMMITTEE

The busy year of 1953-1954 saw the Poster Committee re-activated after several years absence from the Girls' Club. With Barbara Laney as chairman, and Miss Poor as advisor, the first project undertaken by the Poster Committee was the making of signs to advertise the "Fun for Firlands Drive" put on by the Drives Committee. Another project was the publicizing of Girls' Club Sign-Ups. These are but a few of the functions fulfilled by the Poster Committee.

PERSONALITY

The Personality chairman, Berit Nyberg, and her committee sponsored "Girls Club Day" during January. Booklets were passed out containing personality pointers and a personality assembly was held. The Simplicity Pattern Company made it possible for the committee to put on a Spring Fashion Show. The annual Mother and Daughter Tea was held in May, and was planned by the committee. Their sponsor was Miss Pidduck.

USHER FORCE

The girls, under the leadership of Sally Haven and Sandra Talcott, ushered at many events around school. Some of these events were the senior play, "The Thirteenth Chair", the operetta "Brigadoon", and the Talent Show. They also were hostesses at the back to school night; held a doughnut sale; and were in charge of the second Girls' Club Miniature Conference. Without the Usher Force there would be quite a mix-up at school functions.

LINCOLNETTE

During the past year the Lincolnette committee in conjunction with the Clerical committee has published a Lincolnette every month. This Girls' Club paper tells of coming Girls' Club events and personality tips. The committee writes the stories and draws the cover and fashions. The committee was under the leadership this past year of Alayne Fairchild and Diane Chapman. Their sponsor was Miss Kwapil who gave very willingly of her time to make the paper a success.

PARTY

This year the Party Committee, headed by co-chairmen Rosemary Gates and Linda Lollis, and sponsored by Mrs. Lee, was very active planning and giving Girls' Club parties. The first party of the year, in September, was especially for the new girls. In October a Halloween party was held and the theme was "Graveyard Gallup", with excellent entertainment presented. In connection with Health Week, a Girls' Club party was held in March.

NURSE'S AID

The chairman of Nurse's Aid Committee during the fall semester was Anna Burke who was assisted by Carol Holdorf. The second semester Carol took over the chairmanship assisted by Barbara Blair. The girls devote one period a day in the nurse's office sending request to report slips to sophomores and graduating seniors, alphabatizing cards, and filing. The girls enjoy working with the nurse, Miss Ekholm, for she is a very interesting and energetic person.

TEA SERVICE

Approximately once a month the P.T.A. had an afternoon meeting for which they needed students to pour and serve the refreshments. The girls on the committee enjoyed their job and the P.T.A. appreciated the job the committee did. Sponsor for this group is Miss Hensel. Mary Robinson was the fall chairman and then in the spring Janet Eaton took over. The Tea Service Committee did many other projects.

DECORATIONS

The purpose of this committee which was started new this year is to decorate for any party given by the Girls' Club and to see that the theme is carried out. Also the job of this committee is to see that the bulletin board in the Girls' Club presents the current events, and that the calendar has the events for the entire month. The Costume Designing class did some drawings for the Girls' Club. Rae Manthey and Gloria Parker were co-chairmen for Decorations Committee.

HEALTH

The main activities of the Health Committee, under the chairmanship of Aileen Hughes, were the sale of carmelled apples in the fall, and Health Week which was held in March. The sale of the apples by the Health Committee is an annual project, as is Health Week. Features of Health Week included a carrot and celery sale, a Girl's Club Party, an assembly and other events which welcomed participation of every girl.

FIRST AID

The duties of the First Aid Committee are to keep an accurate account of all girls who are signing into the Girls' Club, and to keep the room quiet and in tip-top shape, clean, tidy all of the time. The girls keep the card file up to date and make sure to record each time a girl comes in. There was a girl in the Girls' Club each period of the day to take care of these various duties. The chairman for this active committee was Grace Church.

Band and Orchestra

Anyone roaming in the halls during fifth period is bound to hear the Lincoln Band practicing anything from fight songs to light opera. Participating in all the football games, assemblies, suppling pep bands to play at pep rallies, and marching in the Santa Claus Parade are just a few of the many activities which have kept the Band hopping this last year. Mr. Stanley Weiss is the director.

With students taking roll, guarding the doors, taking phone messages and running errands the job for the study hall teachers is greatly simplified. FIRE SQUAD

In case of fire, air raid, or some other kind of a disaster, the Fire Squad comes to the assistance of the school by being stationed at various places in the building and seeing that order is kept, running errands, adminstering first aid and seeing that all regulations are obeyed. Without this capable squad under the sponsorship of the Boys' Club, the school would be very confused in the case of a disaster.

STAGE SQUAD

Without the help of the Stage Squad, Lincoln would have very few assemblies. But we have assemblies and the squad has done a marvelous job under the leadership of Mr. Pollette. They excell in putting up scenery and props, also in working the spotlights, house lights and stage lights. Among the big jobs they accomplished during the year are the Senior Play, Letterman assemblies and the Operetta.

LOST AND FOUND

The Lost and Found window, located next to the Girls' Club, was open before and after school, and during both lunches, so that the returning of lost articles and the claiming of lost articles could be made possible. One of the busiest places around Lincoln is the Bookroom. Mr. Hatley and his assistants may be found there first period issuing books, paper, pencils, chalk and other school supplies, which are in great demand by students and faculty. The chairman for the day was Lynn Ose.

"Brigadoon"

"Brigadoon", "Brigadoon", these words will be well remembered as the 1954 Operetta. Combining the forces of the music and drama departments an amazing and fascinating tale was told:

With Scottish lads and lasses highland flinging and sword dancing and the Chanters singing those irresistable songs everyone will remember the strange and enchanting story of a Scotch village that came to life every hundred years for one day.

After many weeks of learning parts, practicing, building props and deciding upon costumes, the Senior Play was ready for presentation on December 4 and 5. "The Thirteenth Chair" made a real hit, with its dramatic mysterious adventure. The plot of this play was based on the killing of Edward Wales which was committed during a seance. GIRLS' SPORTS

Miss Zelva Moeser

Miss Emily Burton

Mrs. Margaret Hakola

Life is anything but dull around the girls' gym. There is always a tournament, after-school sports or a big L meeting to go to. Since Little L and Big L combined, Penny Milan has been the head of a large and busy organization.

There have been several co-ed badminton and volleyball tournaments for roll room teams. After-school sports had their usual busy year, with the participating girls earning points toward Big L. Drill team actively participated in the half at football games and marched in the Santa Claus parade.

And of course, at least twice a week, all the girls came to the gym, took their baskets from the obliging basket girls, and dressed for their P. E. class. Some of them learned various types of dancing in social, modern, and square dance classes. Others took games and learned the art of teaching games for entertainment. A few privileged girls were able to take golf or tennis.

Athletics and drill were offered to all the active girls who like volleyball, basketball, and volley-tennis. New muscles are still being discovered in the body mechanics classes. A newcomer to the class will insist that the exercises can't be done, but somehow, the instructor alawys manages to get everyone to bend in the same direction.

Varsity Football, Baseball

Beginning his sports career at Lincoln as a student, Bill Nolan contributed his athletic talents to two Championship teams and placed on three All-City teams before graduating. Since returning to Lincoln as a coach, he has gained a reputation not only for turning out first rate teams, but also for developing many individual stars.

NORM DALTHORP
Varsity Basketball, Third Team Football

Norm Dalthorp, an important cog on the 1939 Basketball team as it brought the first State Basketball Championship to Seattle, is another Lynx Coach who began at and returned to Lincoln in his climb to fame in the High School sports world. Mr. Dalthorp has proven to be even more valuable to the Lynx Quintet as its coach as he was as a player.

BYNG NIXON
Track, Line and Second Team Football

Byng Nixon also started at Lincoln, playing Tackle and Center on the 1934, '35, and '36 squads. He went on to star at the U.W. and also started in pro-ball. In 1946 he took over the job of Lynx Track Coach and turned out a championship team the next year. Since then his squads have not been Champions, but have placed high in the final standings.

L. W. JOHNSON
Golf Coach

In addition to teaching Lincoln students the difference between the elements on a Rhodes Periodic Chart and the art of self control in a study hall, Mr. Johnson also teaches golfing pupils the art of controlling a ball and club on a golf course. It's hard to determine which he does best as he has had excellent results in all.

JAY DISHNOW
Intramural Sports, Third Team Basketball

Coach Dishnow's work with the third team basketball squad and on the Intramural Sports program has proven to be a valuable asset to the Lynx Varsities by providing valuable development of green talent into prospective varsity players. This early training of players enables a much better production of Varsity squads.

STARR SUTHERLAND
Tennis Coach

Lincoln High Schools tennis squad is ably coached by a combination history and tennis teacher, Mr. Starr Sutherland. Mr. Sutherland, an ardent tennis fan himself, not only gives to the players the necesary knowledge of the game but also gives them added encouragement which inspires them to improve their playing.

Although the Lynx wound up the 1953-54 pigskin season in sixth place with a record of 2 wins and 5 losses, the story could easily have been reversed.

After leading the Westside to an 18-6 victory in the Jamboree, Coach Nollan and Co. staged a bitter battle against the hilltop Grizzlies. The determined Lynx battled The City Champs to a score-less tie until the final 30 seconds of the contest, when Swede Wilson's educated toe split the uprights with a tremendous field-goal to give the Quays a 3-0 win.

The following week an injury plagued Lynx squad was downed by the Westside Indians 6-0 in a driving rainstorm.

The Red and Black managed to hold Franklin scoreless for three quarters, but fell to pieces in the final period letting the Quakers score three times and win the contest 19-7.

Garfield's intentional downing of the ball in their own end zone, giving Lincoln 2 points but eliminating the threat of a tying or winning T. D. proved good strategy as the Bulldogs held out for a 6-2 victory.

Following a two game winning streak, in which the Lynx smothered Roosevelt 21-7 and Cleveland 13-6, the Red and Black again came out on the shortest end of a short score in the homecoming game with Ballard. Through a hard fought contest the Lynx were unable to score, and finished the season with a disheartening 7-0 loss.

The second team came through with the best record in Lincoln's Pigskin Department by tying Roosevelt for the fourth place spot in the final second team League Standings. After six hard fought contests the second stringers emerged with three triumphs and three defeats.

Throughout the season these boys exhibited both ability and spirit and should provide keen competition for varsity positions during the 1954-55 season.

The third team fell short of equaling the second team, but outdid the Varsity in the final standings by finishing the season in fifth place with a record of two wins and four losses.

Although these boys had a bad season they gained the valuable experience so necessary for second and varsity string play in their future years. When a varsity team wins a pennant or makes a good showing in the pennant race it is due partly to their previous experience on the third and second teams.

The main purpose of Lincoln's Intramural sports program, under the supervision of Jay Dishnow, Sr., is to provide a sports league within the school for those students who are interested in taking part in school sports but either haven't enough time or enough experience to take part in the regular sports program. These boys may also act as a reserve strength for the regular teams, with some of the more promising players moving up to fill the vacant spots left by boys who are dropped from the team because of injuries or grades.

After being tied for first place seven times and second place five times, Lincoln's chances for the State Tournament were finally eliminated in the last game of the season as Roosevelt downed the Lynx 55-45. Despite a final fourth place berth, the Lynx proved themselves equal to any by defeating both Franklin and Garfield (State Champs and Runner-up) during regular season play.

Earle Irvine replaced Jay Dishnow Jr.'s single game scoring record of 39 points with his own 41.

Champions of their division, the second team "Casaba Kings" knocked over every team in their league before finally being edged out 40-38 in their second round game with Franklin. Garfield, who was smothered by the Lynx 52-25 in their first round game, was the only team able to hand the second team a decisive defeat (51-42).

The "Little Lynx" finally wound up their season with a record of 12 wins and only 2 losses, while averaging 55 offensive points per game to their opponents 39. With this championship team combining with the returning lettermen from the strong Varsity squad, the Lynx should prove to be strong contenders for the 1955 City Championship.

After winning ten of its contest and dropping four, the 'Littlest Lynx' found themselves sharing the number three spot with Franklin as the season came to a halt. Roosevelt, the champions of the third team league, managed to down Lincoln in both the first and second round games (52-37 and 38-33), while Ballard and Franklin traded games with the Lynx, each winning once and losing once. The Red and Black downed all the other schools in both the first and second round games, averaging 44.5 points through their fourteen contests to their opponents 36.3. With both the second and third teams making good showings, Lincoln's basketball future seems to be in good hands.

Song Leaders

Additional color and spirit were contributed to Lincoln sports events by these colorfully dressed songleaders as they led (and sometimes even dragged) the student body into a state of school-spirited singing. These girls, under the advisorship of Miss Moeser and Mr. Pitzer, practiced many long hours perfecting their routines. They were chosen in a competitive contest in which a staff of judges and the girls competing all voted for the girls they felt best qualified for the positions.

Virginia Purpur, Carol Olson, Karen Bassett, Gretchen Baugh, Norma Olson, Merlene Leigh.

Cheer Leaders

The object of much kidding, but really a swell bunch was this group of boys all decked out in white who, along with the songleaders, did a great job promoting school spirit at the football and basketball games. Their high spirited cheerleading inspired the student body into a frenzied cheering which in turn helped to inspire the team into playing their best. The song and cheer leaders both deserve a hearty thanks for their contribution to Lincoln's school spirit.

As the 1952-53 Baseball season drew to a close, the Lynx had exhibited two things; a slight improvement over last years record, and plenty of room for advancement for next year's squad.

Although the Varsity Nine bettered last years one win record by winning two games, their lack of consistent aggressiveness kept them locked in the cellar all season and they were still there keeping the Bulldogs company when the season ended.

The Lynx showed that they could play if they wanted to when they downed the Kuays in their initial victory. Good clutch hitting by almost all the players, combined with smooth infield play, good pitching and topped with two terrific catches by outfielder Ron Vidal, fed the victory hungry Lincoln fans their first win of the season.

However in most of the other games the boys lacked the all around spirit and drive they needed to carry them through the game and emerge victorious. Several games saw the Lynx display tremendous playing in the opening portion of a contest only to fall apart later in the game, letting their opponents score as many as five runs in one inning.

All of the players exhibited some fine playing in most of the games; however they seemed unable to overcome that final inning jinx they picked up somewhere at the beginning of the season. Danny Robinson, who played good steady ball all year was the only Lynx to be mentioned when the All-City Teams were chosen. He was given an honorable mention for his continuous contribution of ability and spirit to the Lincoln squad throughout the season.

Many of these experienced boys will return next season and with the student body turning out to give them the competitive spirit and drive they need, Lincoln could leap from one extreme to the other and emerge in the upper bracket, or even on top of the pack next year.

After a rather fruitless two seasons during which Lincoln won only three games (one in 1952 and two in 1953), Coach Nolan looked forward to a more successful season during the 1954 campaign. With a returning letterman for almost every position on the field and several promising new candidates to round out the squad, the Red and Black held high hopes of emerging from the cellar and climbing to a more respectful position amongst their city rivals.

Among the veterans of the Red and Black uniform who will be seeing action again this spring are Danny Robinson (infield), Bob Romstead (infield), Ray Christianson (catcher), Pete Mansfield (infield), John Salenjus (infield), Jack Ramsden (pitcher), Ron Vidal (outfield), and Darrel Davis (outfield).

Track 1953-54

After four seasons in the number three position of the final City Track League standings, the Lynx's ambition was to move ahead a notch or two this time around.

With the first signs of spring, the track squad began its preparation for another season and a blossoming junior distance ace, by name of Bob Barnum, sprang into action, breaking the all-time Lincoln 880 record of 2:16.7 (set by Atis Peterson in 1952) by turning in a qualifying time of 2:14.4. Others qualifying in the pre-season time trials and showing promise for Coach Nixon's "Nemesis," included Archie Herring (440 and 220), Bill Savage (100 and 220), Fred Zalud (100), Ed Anderson (44), Dick Aitkin (high jump), and Bert Bender and Bob Roaf (shot put).

Golf 1954

Despite a record of only one win and six losses during last years competition, the Golf squad was looking forward to a prosperous season this year. With seven lettermen returning to give the squad valuable experience and strength, Coach Leslie W. Johnson held high hopes for a good showing through the 1953-54 season and possibly a Championship team Last years squad, led by Franz Dolp and Gordy Jacobsen, experienced a season of tough breaks and finished in seventh place above a winless Cleveland team.

Tennis

The Lynx "Racketeers" also had a bad season last year, dropping six of their seven contests to wind up in undisputed last place. Although the records list Lincoln at the bottom of the pile, Coach Sutherland's boys were not push-overs by any means. Throughout the season they exhibited both ability and spirit, but were just unable to overcome their stronger opponents. With several returning lettermen to add strength to the 1954 squad these Lynx will be striving for a better showing and a position near the top in the final standings.
